On Our Website

www.BiggleswadeHistory.org.uk

The site contains much information about the Society and the history of Biggleswade. For observations or items for the website contact webmaster David Wheeler via the site.

Newsletters

We welcome history-based information and articles about Biggleswade and its people for our bi-monthly newsletter. Please contact the Chairman.

Biggleswade Archives

The Society has accumulated a considerable quantity of ephemera, photographs, and records pertinent to Biggleswade. These are available to the members by special arrangement with the Archivist; also, a quantity is always on display at local exhibitions.

We have an archive room that can be used for limited research work but the Society continues actively to seek a way of making the archives more accessible to members and to the public at a research room or heritage facility.

We welcome donations or loan of items of historical interest relating to Biggleswade, and are always pleased to receive photographs or cine film, which can be copied and returned. Please contact the Archivist if you have such items.
